

DGFT sets up help desk for exporters, importers

HYDERABAD

The Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) has set up a help desk for the export-import community in the wake of the Russia-Ukraine crisis.

The help desk has been operationalised to support and seek suitable resolutions to issues related to India's international trade with immediate effect, according to a DGFT communication issued on Friday.