

Rubber industry association elects Sawar Dhanania as chief

PNS ■ MUMBAI

All India Rubber Industries Association (AIRIA) on Wednesday said it has elected Sawar Dhanania as its president.

Besides, it elected Shashi Kumar Singh as senior vice president and Vipin Mehta as vice president in its annual general meeting (AGM) held in December, the industry body said in a statement.

The tenure of all the three elected office bearers is till the next AGM scheduled for September 2022. "AIRIA, which stood at the helm for 75 years from its establishment, is committed to stand by the rubber goods manufacturers and the developments for the rubber sector in the country.