Rubber Industry – In a Women Eye

Women need permission from her childhood from her Parents, after marriage from her husband. Men can take decision while moving from one to another state Or country. But women need to ask and think what will happen if I go for a day out also. This is happen from all category of women I.e. workers and staff level also.

Mission “Climate-Neutral 2040”

LANXESS has made its mission to be climate-neutral and does its bit to protect the environment. The chemical industry may be among the most energy-intensive of all industries, generating around 7% of total global CO2 emissions, but it is also an innovative solution provider. Thanks to a range of product and process innovations, the chemical industry is playing an active role in shaping a climate-friendly future.
