

Synthetic rubber consumption up 8%

Synthetic rubber consumption rose by 8% to 33,925 tonne in February, 2011, while domestic supply rose by almost 10% to 9,634 tonne in the same period, according to the rubber board. Rubber demand and production stood at 31,440 tonne and 8,768 tonne, respectively, in the previous year.